Common Application Tips

Education Section:

- For this question: "Indicate the number of community programs or organizations that have provided you with free assistance in your application process."
 - The answer is 0
- If you have taken a college/university course beginning with 9th grade (this excludes AP courses)...
 - Be sure to answer all questions about the class.
 - DO NOT mark "transcript available." You will send college transcripts to the college which you ultimately decide to attend.
 - If you did not earn a degree, the field is not required so you can leave it blank.
- Honors;
 - What Honors should be included?
Some honors and awards to identify are:
 - ✓ National Merit Commended or Semifinalist
 - ✓ AP Scholar
 - ✓ Selected participant, talent search such as John's Hopkins CTY or Stanford's EPGY
 - ✓ Selected Member of an honor society (Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica, French or Latin Honors Society)
 - ✓ Cum Laude
 - ✓ National Honor Society
 - ✓ MVP or awardee, Mock Trial, debate or speech competition
 - ✓ Selected participant in a special summer academic program
 - ✓ Award winner in a local, state, regional, or national arts or music competition or fair
 - ✓ Award winner, school departmental academic award (if several departments or years, identify as one honor but list all departments and years)
 - ✓ Award winner in a local, state, regional, or national science or math or other academic competition, fair, Olympiad
 - ✓ Academic Honor Roll

Testing Section:

- For this question: "In addition to sending official score reports as required by colleges, do you wish to self-report scores or future test dates for any of the following standardized tests: ACT, SAT/SAT Subject, AP, IB, TOEFL, PTE Academic, and IELTS?"
 - It never hurts to self-report the scores in which you feel confident.

- If you are unhappy with your current scores and plan to test again this fall for ACT, SAT/SAT Subject Tests, you do not need to self-report.
- If you scored below a 3 on an AP exam, we encourage you not to report.
- To see which schools require tests and what kinds of tests they require, you can use the Requirements Grid, found here
 - <https://www.commonapp.org/PublicPages/ApplicationRequirements>
- You can also find this information on the My Colleges page. Click on the name of a school and scroll down until you see "Test Policy." Click the link to be taken to the school's testing policy page.

Activities Section:

- List your activities from the MOST important/defining of you to the least.
- There are 36 weeks in the school year and 52 weeks in a full calendar year.

Writing Section:

- Type your essay into a Word or Pages document first to check for spelling, etc.
- For the discipline section: If any of this applies to you, please work with your counselor to answer these sections!
- For this question: "Please provide an answer below if you wish to provide details of circumstances or qualifications not reflected in the application."
 - Seek support from your counselor if you feel this section applies to you.

Do not forget about the "My Colleges" page where you may encounter supplemental questions!
